3	I think one way to help more people access outdoor recreational opportunities is to utilize, take care of, and develop local outdoor parks and rec areas. Having grown up in (and currently living in) the Cedaredge area, I have heard stories about how Hart's Basin (a.k.a. Fruitgrowers Reservoir) used to be a nice recreational area with at least fishing, day camping, and boating opportunities available. I don't think it's been usable since the late '70's/early '80's. It would be nice for the community and the environment to explore cleaning up/developing this area for mountain biking, hiking, boating, and fishing opportunities. Not only would the end result be an amazing addition to Delta County, but it could be an incredible learning experience for students and/or a way for multiple stakeholders (e.g. government, schools, farmers, Boy Scouts, COPMOBA or DAMBikers) to join forces for a positive change.	4/21/2016 12:35 PM
4	The Western Slope is so ripe for outdoor adventure that it amazes me how few people/cities capitalize on it. I look at CITIES like San Antonio, TX that have a River Walk and wonder why we don't have one or more! I hope Delta County can bring outdoor activities to the forefront as has been proposed so that we can turn from a coal driven economy to a nature driven economy. Thank you for working on this.	3/31/2016 11:36 AM
5	It has been hard to get out and make new friends who do the things I'm interested in and my spouses mobility issues make it hard because I don't want to leave him behind, but he's not handicapped just stubborn.	3/31/2016 11:22 AM

12	We live in a beautiful area and it is nice that many of the beautiful places can be accessed by car. We have an aging population and it would be a shame not to be able to get to the places to recreate.	3/4/2016 3:25 PM
